

Terms and Conditions

1) Introduction

- a) These Terms and Conditions apply to Employer participation in Salvus Master Trust (The Scheme) and sets out the roles and responsibilities of all parties.

2) Defined Terms

- a) Appendix 1 defines the terms referenced within this document and the participation agreement
- b) References to "we", "us", "our" or "ourselves" in these Terms and Conditions are references to Salvus and includes anyone appointed to administer the scheme on behalf of the trustees.
- c) References to "you" or "your" are references to you, the Employer and includes anyone acting on your behalf such as an accountant or payroll agent.

3) Participation

- a) You will participate and contribute to the Scheme with effect from the date specified in the Agreement.
- b) If there is a conflict between this Participation Agreement and the Scheme Documents, the Trustees will decide which will prevail. No decision will be in conflict with the Scheme Rules or overriding laws.
- c) Active participation in the Scheme does not fulfil all employer obligations under the Pensions Act 2008. You are responsible for understanding your duties and the extent to which the Scheme enables you to meet these.
- d) In respect of the services, we are entering into this Participation Agreement on behalf of the Trustees and are providing the services on behalf of the Trustees. Salvus and the Trustees may each take the benefit of any term of this Participation Agreement. If Salvus is replaced as Trust Manager of the Scheme by the Trustee, this Participation Agreement will continue in effect as if it had been made between the Employer and the replacement Trust Manager, who will also be acting on behalf of the Trustees.
- e) Whilst participating in the scheme, we may from time to time undertake professional and regulatory checks against employers. Such checks may include conflict, credit and due diligence checks as well as ongoing searches of an employer's name and company number within appropriate databases.
- f) Your ongoing participation requires an active direct debit to be in place at all times.

4) Data Provision

- a) You will provide contribution data, including nil submissions, after each of your payroll cycles. Where you are using the assessment, tool provided through your employer portal to assess your workforce, any failure to provide data every payroll cycle may result in the removal of the assessment tool.
- b) You will load data to your Employer Portal no later than the 4th of each month. No other data transfer method will be accepted.

5) Payment of Contributions

- a) You will provide us with a valid and up to date direct debit instruction for payments to be collected by us in accordance with the Participation Agreement. Until a valid direct debit payment is in place, you will not be considered to be participating.
- b) We reserve the right to return any payment that is not paid via Direct Debit. Only in extraneous circumstances will payment by BACS be allowed and, in any case, only when data has already been provided and the BACS payment matches the data exactly. Any other BACS payments will be returned within 5 working days.
- c) The scheme accepts contributions on a Net pay basis. Contributions should be deducted from employees pay, before tax and 100% of the contribution should be paid to the scheme.
- d) You must ensure contributions will be received by us on or before the 22nd of the month following deduction from pay.
- e) Pursuant to the Scheme Documents and your participation in the Scheme, you will pay the contributions specified in the Payment Schedule by direct debit in accordance with the details specified in the Payment Schedule.
- f) If you discover, or are informed by us, that any contributions paid into the Scheme fall short of those required to be paid under the Payment Schedule, you will pay the shortfall to us by direct debit which is generated by uploading details of the shortfall amount(s) to the Employer Portal as soon as possible but in any event no later than the next payroll upload date.
- g) If contributions are paid late and, following investigations, it is found that the members have suffered financial loss, you will pay the required amount to put the members into a no-worse-off position. This amount will be agreed with us in advance of receipt of the outstanding contributions.

6) Employers Obligations

- a) You shall perform all obligations under the Scheme that apply to you (whether under the Scheme Documents, as amended from time to time, under this Participation Agreement, the Applicable Law, or otherwise)
- It is your responsibility to comply with, and you shall comply with, all Employer obligations under the Automatic Enrolment Laws including the compliance of all contributions to the Applicable Law
 - It is your responsibility to comply with, and you shall comply with, all employer obligations under relevant pensions law
 - You will promptly provide any documents, information or other assistance requested by us, or the Trustee or as required under this Participation Agreement, the Scheme or Member Accounts
 - You will ensure that the contributions referenced in the Payment Schedule accurately reflects the intended contributions payments and you shall immediately inform us of any shortfall in contributions by reference to those contributions specified in the Payment Schedule or the Automatic Enrolment Laws.
 - You will ensure that you have sufficient resource and processes to adhere to the participation agreement, payment schedule and these terms and conditions
- b) You will ensure that all information given to us by you and on your behalf is complete, accurate and kept up to date. This includes, without limitation, any change to the Primary contact; if you are likely to become insolvent, enter into administration, become bankrupt, be wound up or compromise any debts to creditors; or any change in control of the Employer.
- c) Where you breach any of your obligations in relation to the Scheme or the Participation Agreement including but not limited to the Employers obligation under Clause 4 and 5 of this Participation Agreement, and without limitation to any legal and financial consequences and any other rights or remedies of Salvus and the Trustees, the following shall apply:
- We may charge you an additional administration fee, where additional administration services are required to be provided by Salvus to the Employer and
 - You shall indemnify and keep indemnified us against all losses, damages, costs or expense and other liabilities (including legal fees) incurred by, awarded against or agreed to be paid by Salvus or the Trustee as a result of the breach.

7) Software and Websites

- a) You will be responsible for entering/uploading or updating all Data into the Platform in the Prescribed Format.
- b) You will inform us of any errors or failures in sending or receiving data.
- c) You will not copy, adapt or vary the Supporting Software or the Platform in any way and will be responsible for maintaining suitable firewall protection and virus checks in respect of your Information Technology. Both parties will use all reasonable endeavours to ensure the security of and prevent any unauthorised access to the Platform.
- d) You acknowledge that all Intellectual Property Rights used in or connected with the Supporting Software and all supporting documentation or manuals shall remain our sole property or that of the Owner.
- e) We reserve the right to suspend or remove access to your employer portal at any time.
- f) From time to time your employer portal may be offline for maintenance or development work. You will be notified via the employer portal where this is the case.
- g) We, nor the Trustees can be held responsible for any loss of access caused by your systems or hardware, or internet connectivity.
- h) We will provide each Member with a username/password and web link and instructions on how to access and review their Personal Information on the Website.

8) Responsibilities of the Employer and Communication

- a) Your responsibilities are set out in Appendix 2.
- b) Both parties shall communicate with each other in relation to the Scheme as specified in the Methods of Communication set out in Appendix 3.

9) Liability

- a) We will rely on you for the accuracy of all information, instructions or data received from you and will be under no obligation to verify this. We shall not be liable to you for any loss caused by our reliance on, such information, instructions or data.
- a) We will not be liable for any loss arising under the Services other than the loss caused by our negligence or failure to perform the Services.

10) Confidential Information

- a) You agree to provide us with any information we require in order to provide the Services, administer the Scheme or where such information is needed in connection with legal proceedings, by any competent authority or by law.
- b) We will provide, to you or an authorised 3rd party all information reasonably required in connection with the Scheme.
- c) We will not share personal information with any party that is not authorised to receive such information. Authorised 3rd parties will include regulatory and other bodies that are authorised by law or statute.
- d) We will not be obliged to provide you with any personal information relating to their employees without express authority from the individual
- e) The provisions of this section (8) shall remain in force if you cease to participate in the Scheme.

11) Scheme Records

- a) We shall keep and maintain the Scheme Records and will provide you with at least one months' notice if we intend to implement any major change to the system on which the Scheme Records are kept.
- b) We shall maintain a disaster recovery system in relation to the Scheme Records.
- c) We will keep the Scheme Records for at least the minimum period required by law.

12) Fees

- a) You will pay the scheme fee(s) in accordance with the agreed fee schedule.

13) Ad-hoc Charges

- a) Any non-standard or rectification work required shall be chargeable on a time-cost basis. Ad-hoc fees will be collected by direct debit.
- b) If system changes are required to your employer portal and/or the data within as a result of actions or non-action by you, additional charges may be payable.
- c) Any contributions paid by BACS will be processed subject to a charge of £100 per BACS payment, representing the additional work involved to process such payments

14) Money Laundering

- a) Under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, we reserve the right to request documentary original evidence of identity and proof of address of directors or officers of the employer.

15) Disagreements

- b) If a disagreement arises between you and ourselves in relation to the Scheme we will attempt to resolve this in a timely manner. If we are unable to reach agreement either party may record a formal Dispute Resolution Request.
- c) We will attempt to resolve Dispute Resolution Request within a reasonable timeframe. If we cannot agree then you may refer the Dispute to the Trustees.
- d) If you disagree with the finding of the Trustees, you may refer the issue to The Pensions Ombudsman Service. Contact details are as follows: The Pensions Ombudsman, 11 Belgrave Road, London SW1V 1RB, Tel: 0207 630 2200.

16) Force Majeure

- a) We shall not be liable to you for any loss or damage if such loss or damage is caused directly or indirectly by Force Majeure.
- b) If we are prevented by Force Majeure from complying with our obligations for a continuous period of 30-days then you or we shall be entitled to terminate the provision of the Services.

17) Data Protection

- c) You will comply at all times with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998 and General Data Protection Regulation(s). We agree to only process Personal Information solely for the purposes of the administration and governance of the Scheme in line with the law. We agree not to transfer or disclose any such Personal Information to a third party without your written consent.

18) Variation

- a) We reserve the right to vary these terms and conditions from time to time upon providing you with one months' notice in writing unless the change is required as a result of a change of law, a change in regulation or in the policy of a regulator to which the Trustee or Trust Manager is subject, or a decision of an ombudsman or other statutory decision-maker, or the change is not material.

19) Termination

- a) If you enter into any form of insolvency (other than for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation) your participation in the Scheme will terminate in accordance with the Rules.

- b) If you apply to Companies House to dissolve your incorporated business, you will notify the Trustee immediately and ensure that all contributions are up to date.
- c) If you wish to terminate your participation in the Scheme you must provide us with a minimum of 1 months' notice. Fees will continue to be payable during your notice period.
- d) Your participation in the Scheme will cease, at our discretion, if your contributions remain unpaid for a significant period of time.
- e) If you fail, in the opinion of the Trustee or us, to perform or observe the Employer's obligations under the Scheme or this Participation agreement your participation in the Scheme will be terminated. This includes but is not limited to circumstances where you have failed to provide us with any information required under this Participation Agreement and/or the you have failed to pay any contributions or fees due under this Participation Agreement on time or at all and/or where you do not satisfactorily pass ongoing checks your participation in the scheme will cease.
- f) If you become or are reasonably likely to become, in our opinion, insolvent, or enter into administration, become bankrupt, be wound up or compromise any debts with creditor your participation in the scheme will cease
- g) On termination of this Participation Agreement, you shall immediately pay to us all outstanding unpaid fees, contributions, payments, invoices and interest and, in respect of any services supplied for which no invoice has been submitted, we may submit an invoice, which shall be payable immediately on receipt
- h) Should any contributions be late for more than 120 days or if you have been persistently late 6 or more times in any 12-month rolling period, your participation in the Scheme will cease, at the trustees' discretion.

20) Notices

- a) Notices to us may be served in accordance with the Methods of Communication. We may serve notices upon you either in writing at your registered office or by the Methods of Communication.

21) Law

- a) Both parties agree that these terms and conditions shall be governed by English law.
